Dear Thiru Jain,

Thank you very much for the mementos you had kindly sent with your letter of 14th December, following the recent celebration of completion of 150 years of dedicated service by Tamil Nadu Police. It is a gracious gesture on your part to have remembered and sent them to me, now living in retirement with distant memories of my old glorious days with Tamil Nadu Police.

I compliment you and your officers on the thoughtfully designed mementos, including an attractive and informative Coffee Table Book and a Souvenir. I shall cherish them with my nostalgic recollections. I specially recall the Tamil Nadu Police Centenary we had celebrated with a lot of ardour in 1959. A spectacular Tattoo show was put up by the police at that time in the Corporation Stadium which was greatly applauded by the public, and the show was repeated on their demand !

I wish the Tamil Nadu Police continued success in their delivery of excellent service for the over-all security of the people and the State. I am aware that this impeccable record is built on the ' toil, tears and sweat ' of hard work and dedicated performance by thousands of un-named police personnel down the line in the field. My best wishes to all of them.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

(C.V.Narasimhan)

Shri K Pradeep Jain, IPS
Director General of Police
Tamilnadu

My dear Shri K P Jain,

1. Thank you very much for the coffee table book & the commemorative stamp album which is informative and well presented. The sesquicentenary indeed is a privileged occasion and the publications, mementoes & events aptly reflect the pride of your achievements that you have etched in the annals of history.

2. I would like to mention the excellent cooperation and bonhomie that exists between both our organizations that enable seamless intelligence sharing and smooth conduct of protocol and security related issues. I am confident that this trend would continue to the benefit of the region we operate in.

With warm regards

Yours sincerely
